m_daly_123: excellent tab! thanks for posting this.

only thing i noticed was that the verse and chorus both had a bit too many notes. the really quick parts in the verse (G's and A's) should have 5 notes as opposed to 6, thus giving it the delecerando feel (six notes would just make it a sextuplet..listen closely and count and you'll hear what i'm saying). and the chorus is spot on except the B part once again has to many notes. listen and you'll hear that its the same amount as the D and C part, just with a slightly different rhythm. minor errors. great tab. 5 stars.
