

F#m G#7
I do and I don't, well I do and I don't, Oh yeah

The next dimension, show me in

[Bridge]

F#sus2 is played (by the piano), but F#m is also fine to play in this context

C#m                      G#7                      F#sus2                      E

C#m
You get a little bit more this time when

G#7
You give a little bit for your brother's kind

F#m                      E
Like she always said, "Oh, Don't look back, just look ahead"

C#m
You sing a little bit stronger when you

G#7
Remember the song of your old best friend

F#m                      E
Like she always said, "Oh, Don't look back, just look ahead"

[Interlude 2]

Intro Riff again

C#m              B              A                      x2

[Chorus 3]

E
Everything they said about everything

Was a coming undone it's a life supreme

F#m    C#m
I do and I don't, well I do and I don't, Oh yeah

E
Feasting on the flowers so fast and young

D
It's a light so bright that I bite my tongue

F#m    G#7
I do and I don't, well I do and I don't, Oh yeah

Shwing it up: Transpose -2 and throw a capo on the second fret, makes it a bit easier.
