

[Verse]
 G#m B
 Listen to the Beatles and the sound of laughing Ed McMahon, we got high
 G#m B
 Educated by a world so full of self and lost in space, too much pride
 G#m B
 Cosmonauts and dirty thoughts are juggling the juggernaut, Soviet Spy
 G#m B
 Every now and then when I remember to befriend, the little things in life

[Chorus]
 C#m E
 Hey you're fine
 B
 I wanna listen to the radio
 F# C#m
 Driving down Calexico highway
 E G#m B
 And now I know the signs for sure

C#m E
 Hold my hand
 B
 I want to share it all with Mary
 F# C#m

[Verse]
 G#m B
 Later on I'll read to you the things that I've been needing to say goodbye
 G#m B
 Walk away from mom and dad to find the love you never had, tell no lies
 G#m B
 Carry on and write a song that says it all and shows it off 'fore you die
 G#m B
 Take a little breath before you catch an early death there is so much sky

[Chorus]
 C#m E
 Hey you're fine
 B
 I wanna listen to the radio
 F# C#m
 Driving down Calexico highway
 E G#m B
 And now I know the signs for sure

C#m E
 Hold my hand
 B
 I want to share it all with Mary
 F# C#m

[Verse]
 G#m
 Skinny brains and little stains upon your
 B
 Face teenage remains tell me more
 G#m B
 Lifted in the fifties when you really rather drifted through time, let's soar

[Chorus]
 C#m E
 Hey you're fine
 B
 I wanna listen to the radio
 F# C#m
 Driving down Calexico highway
 E G#m B
 And now I know the signs for sure

C#m E
 Hold my hand
 B
 I want to share it all with Mary
 F# C#m

dquill15: I found for the verses G#m then F# then E works a lot better

camac1: Agreed, for me it's G#m, F#, E, E
