jrt5024: You're right about the ending. I realized it was in that higher octave with the power-chords after I already wrote mine, but I don't even feel like fixing it, but about the post-chorus/bridge thing, check out my tab and see what you think cause you can DEFINITELY hear that higher part and I think everyone just thinks its with the bass drum but I don't even hear that lower bass drum part when I really listen... but yeah, your tab is definitely better than anyone elses. No one noticed that power-chord thing at the end.

LD1992: brill, nothing else to say, its too good psychokiss: Awesome. No one with Pro got it right.
